

TOWN OF VLADIVOSTOK NOW ABLAZE AND SITUATION THERE IS DESPERATE

Mobs are in Control, Looting Continues and Hundreds of Rioters are Shot

Food Supply Growing Short and Famine Threatens— Vessels in Harbor are Crowded With Refugees Afraid to Remain on Shore.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 15.—A telegram just received from Vladivostok says the whole town and the port are now ablaze. The greater part of the place has already been consumed.

The situation today is desperate. The mobs are in practical control of the town and the looting which has marked the progress of the outbreak continues unabated. The rioters likewise continue to fire the buildings and the flames are spreading rapidly. To make the situation worse the food supply is growing short and famine threatens the city. The vessels in the harbor are crowded with the refugees who are afraid to remain on shore. During the first day of the rioting 300 rioters, mostly sailors and artillerymen were killed or wounded. As yet, however, individual citizens have not been molested.

The riot was started by malcontent reservists. They started the trouble by looting a bazaar. The irresolution of the authorities who failed to take vigorous measures to put an end to the outbreak, was responsible for the spread of the disorder. Seeing they were not interfered with in the first attack, the rioters broke into other shops. All business houses in the commercial section were entered and plundered. The rioters soon became drunk and then resorted to all forms of violence, apparently being inspired by but one motive, to do all the damage that lay within their power.

OLDER BROTHER Set Fire to Baby's Clothing and Tot Was Burned To Death.

Chillicothe, O., Nov. 15.—On November 2, Albert Gilwater, aged 2 1/2 years, was found burned to death at the home of his parents, near Three Locks, and when Coroner Gibbs investigated the case the other child declared that their little brother had fallen into an open fire place.

Yesterday it was learned that an older brother, David, aged 13, had set fire to the child because his mother had refused to let him go into the woods. The county officials secured a full confession from David in which he said that he had taken a brand of wood from the fire place and set fire to Albert's gown and then watched him burn. The boy was placed under arrest last night.

SECRETARY TAFT IN WASHINGTON

HE PAYS HIGH TRIBUTE TO JOHN M. PATTISON DEMOCRATIC GOVERNOR-ELECT.

Says That He Would Like to Have the State Legislature Pass a Civil Service Act.

Washington, Nov. 15.—(Bulletin.) Secretary Taft today, in response to the suggestion made by certain Republicans in Ohio that he assume the leadership of the party in that state, made the statement that he is out of politics and is too deeply engrossed in his work here even to consider the matter.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Secretary of War Taft has arrived here after a trip of investigation to Panama. Supplementing his remarks on the Ohio election made yesterday at Norfolk, Va., which were telegraphed to the Advocate, Secretary Taft said:

"Mr. Pattison, the Democratic governor-elect I know well. He is a man of high character, and if we must have a Democratic governor, I do not know of a better man. If our Democratic friends, including Mr. Pattison, were sincere in their denunciation, and I have no doubt he and many others were, they now have an opportunity to unite with the Republican civil service reformers in securing the passage of a civil service act applicable to counties and cities of the state of Ohio. As between the Democrats and Republicans the Ohio legislature is very close indeed, and now would seem to be the opportunity for the real enemies of bossism to forget party differences and unite in the passing of a law which, if properly drawn and actually enforced, will do much to elevate the tone of municipal and county politics by depriving local bosses of public patronage to perpetuate their political power."

BALFOUR'S THREAT

Premier's Unusually Candid Warning to His Followers is Interpreted by Some as a Threat.

London, Nov. 15.—Premier Balfour's unusually candid warning to his followers at the conference of the National Union of Conservative Associations at Newcastle-on-Tyne is interpreted in some quarters as a threat to resign the leadership of the Unionist party, if dissensions continue with regard to the fiscal policy, and judging by the editorials in the daily papers, there is small likelihood of his appeal having the desired effect.

CHARGES AGAINST REV. WANNAMAKER

PASTOR HAS BEEN INDISCREET, BUT THAT IS ALL SAYS THE CHURCH COUNCIL.

Evidence Does Not Warrant a Divorce and Church Hopes Reconciliation Will Follow.

Elyria, O., Nov. 15.—The Congregational church council, sitting in trial on Rev. H. S. Wannamaker, pastor of the Second church here, today decided that charges of immorality against him are not proved. It was found he has been indiscreet and advised that for the present he retire from the ministry.

This decision was based on committee and a great amount of gossip told the ministers by women members of Wannamaker's flock.

Under fire of a divorce suit, Wannamaker resigned from his church a month ago. The gossips had remarked his friendship for Mrs. Mary Fulton, a young widow member of the church. Then Wannamaker secured the church council trial. He sought what he called vindication. The report of the council says: "The evidence submitted does not warrant a divorce." It recommends that Wannamaker retain his church membership, withdraw from active work of the ministry "for the present," and that "he use all effort to procure the withdrawal of the divorce now pending against him by his wife. The council earnestly advises a reconciliation."

ISLE OF PINES.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Senator Quesada, Cuban minister, called at the state department today for information regarding the reported revolutionary movement in the Isle of Pines where it is alleged American residents have organized a territorial government under the United States, refusing to recognize the sovereignty of Cuba. Secretary Root told him that nothing official regarding the affair had reached him. He stated authoritatively that if the American residents of the Isle are expecting aid from this government they will be disappointed.

DUPLICATE SET OF BOOKS IS KEPT

BY PARTIES IN THE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL BANK AT ALLEGHENY, PENN.

Invaluable Discovery Was Made Several Days After the Suicide of Cashier Clark.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 15.—If the latest report concerning the Enterprise bank is true, Receiver Cunningham is in possession of a duplicate set of books kept by persons in the bank between Aug. 25 last, when federal examination was made, and the day the bank closed its doors. This information comes from one of the directors of the Enterprise bank, who appeared to be surprised that no mention had been previously made of this incident in the examination of the bank's accounts. The finding of the books was some days subsequent to the suicide of Cashier Clark, and a perusal of them has been of invaluable assistance in tracing the source many of the fraudulent financial transactions that wrought the wreck of the bank.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 15.—The large dry goods store of John C. Myers & Co. was destroyed by fire this morning. A warehouse in the rear of the Myers building, owned by Crawford, caught fire and the loss was heavy. The Myers loss will probably reach $200,000.

Postmaster G. A. Corbitt ordered the return of three letter carriers at Toledo, O., removed for collecting the sale of certain mining stock while on duty.

UNDER THREAT

Was Shipbuilding Co. Suit Settled Says James Hazen Hyde

TELLS A STARTLING STORY

ACCUSATIONS ARE MADE AGAINST FORMER GOVERNOR ODELL

Mystery of the Mercantile Company's Loan Is Cleared Up—Union Pacific Pool Is Aired.

New York, Nov. 15.—James Hazen Hyde, former officer of the Equitable society, whose stories yesterday before the insurance investigation committee of the ways and doings of financiers and politicians, gave Wall street a start and set the political world talking, was on the stand again today and his testimony added a new chapter to the already long history of so-called frenzied finance.

It was a crowded and choked room of spectators that today listened intently to Hyde. He said he had received several offers for his holdings of stock in the Equitable last winter. The first offer came from George J. Gould and the second from Henry C. Frick and E. W. Harriman, who offered Hyde $5,000,000 for all his stock, or $2,500,000 for half his holdings. Hyde said he declined the offer as he did not think it for the best interest of the society to sell.

"I offered to trustee the stock for 5 years," said Hyde, "at the beginning of the trouble, but there were legal difficulties in the way. Vice President Tarbell made an offer of $1,000,000 for my stock. He said a syndicate of gentlemen stood ready to furnish this sum. George W. Young made an offer of $7,000,000 for the stock."

Inquirer Hughes then spread on the record the act incorporating the Fire-proof Warehouse company whose charter was taken over by the Mercantile Trust company. The inquirer also read into the record bills introduced in the state assembly and senate in March, 1904, repealing the charter of the Fire-proof Warehouse company. These bills are the alleged retaliatory bills introduced to force a payment to a certain New York politician who had suffered some loss in the collapse of the ship building trust.

Hyde said he wished to make a statement concerning the ship-building matter. He said:

"I had no interest in any settlements made regarding the shipbuilding matter. I had no business in the company. In any way, shape or form, nor did the Equitable."

New York, Nov. 15.—The testimony of James Hazen Hyde before the insurance investigation committee was sensational in character. Hyde for many years was vice president of the Equitable Life Assurance society, and was one of the most prominent financiers of the country. He was one of the organizers of the Equitable Life Assurance society, and was one of the most prominent financiers of the country. He was one of the organizers of the Equitable Life Assurance society, and was one of the most prominent financiers of the country.

about $180,000. The bonds subsequently netted 50 cents on the dollar. Mr. Hyde said Mr. Harriman suggested the settlement of the suit, and the committee advised it, and that he recommended it.

Mr. Hyde created further sensations by accusing the Frick committee of unfairness in its report, charging Mr. Frick and Mr. Harriman with conspiracy to get him out of the country by implying him with the ambition to become ambassador to France and with endeavoring to overthrow his position in the Equitable Life Assurance society.

Mr. Hyde cleared up the matter of the $685,000 loan of the Mercantile Trust company, which appeared on the books of the Equitable Life under the caption of the "J. W. Alexander number 3 account." He said he first heard of this account in the fall of 1902, when it was called to his attention by President Alexander, who said that he and Mr. Jordan had incurred the loan to take up stock that was being bid up to fictitious values to the detriment of the company, to settle suits that were hampering the business of the society and for campaign contributions. This contribution was the one to the last campaign, and was asked by Mr. Frick, who suggested it for the benefit of the society. To procure this money Mr. Alexander had Mr. Hyde write a letter to the president of the Mercantile Trust company, and this letter practically placed him in the position of a guarantor. Later when the settlement of the loan was forced, Mr. Alexander and Mr. Jordan raised all the money they could toward it. The stock purchased with part of the loan was sold to Thomas W. Ryan for $212,000, and the balance, $212,500, Mr. Hyde paid personally. He did this because he understood that Mr. Alexander was financially embarrassed.

Of the $50,000,000 Union Pacific pool, Mr. Hyde said Mr. Harriman suggested it, and explained it was to be a holding syndicate for five years. It was understood this was for the purpose of controlling the Union Pacific. Mr. Hyde signed the syndicate agreement at Mr. Harriman's suggestion, and talked only with Mr. Harriman on the subject. The executive committee was not informed of this operation, as Mr. Hyde said that Mr. Alexander did not think it necessary, and that Mr. Harriman requested that the committee be not informed of it. He said that Mr. Harriman even refused to give a statement of the purpose of the pool to the superintendent of insurance when he was "clamping for it" last spring. Mr. Hyde presented a statement showing that in the seven years of his connection with the Equitable and allied corporations his average income was $38,000 a year.

REGULATION OF RAILWAY RATES

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S REPLY TO PROTEST MADE BY RAIL- WAY EMPLOYEES.

Outcry is Much the Same He Encoun- tered in Putting Through the Car Coupling Business.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Protest was made to the president against proposed railroad freight rate legislation by representatives of the five labor organizations connected with railroads, the engineers, firemen, conductors, switchmen and trainmen. Members of the delegation pointed out that railroad rate legislation logically meant the lowering of rates.

President Roosevelt replied: "The outcry against rate legislation is much of the character as that I encountered when I was engaged in putting through that car coupling business; or in endeavoring to secure certain legislation in which you all have been interested such as the employers' liability law. Most certainly I will join with you in resisting the almost any movement to hurt or damage any railways which are decently for I would hold that such damage was not merely to the capitalist, nor merely to the wage worker on the railroads, but to all the country. All I want in any rate legislation is to give the government an effective supervisory power, which shall be exercised as judiciously as possible in justice to the railroads as to prevent their doing injustice to the public. Our endeavor is to see that those big railroad men and big shippers who are not responsive to the demands of justice are required to do what their fellow who are responsive to the demands of justice would be glad to do of their own accord."

At Vernon, O., Nov. 15.—Believing that the assault upon James E. McGarvey at Kenyon college was inspired by the Pierson case, Prosecutor Stillwell and Coroner Scarbrough have prepared to bring the matter before the grand jury. McGarvey is somewhat improved although he continues to suffer much pain.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 15.—A sympathy strike declared by the union of typographers today. It is spreading rapidly. The authorities hold the sympathy strike of the typographers.

CUT IN TWO

Frightful Death of William Garrison Father of Eight Children

FORMER HEBRON MAN KILLED

ACCIDENT OCCURRED WEDNESDAY NOON AT THIRD STREET

Victim of the Wheels Had Been Work- ing Only Few Days for Smith Lumber Co.

William Garrison, aged 62, a helper at the P. Smith Sons' lumber yard, was instantly killed at 11:45 a. m. Wednesday, near the Third street railroad crossing. He was struck by a Panhandle freight train.

Mr. Garrison, who has been employed as a helper at the lumber yard for the past few days, had just left a lumber car which was standing on a switch on one of the south tracks between Second and Third streets. He had started for dinner, to his boarding place on South Fourth street, just north of the canal, and had in his arms a bundle of kindlings. Persons who witnessed the accident say that Garrison was crossing the tracks toward Third street and that two trains were nearing the crossing. One train was going west and the other, the one which struck the unfortunate man, was east bound Panhandle local number 8098, in charge of Engineer Fred Brunner and Conductor George Beck. It is supposed that Mr. Garrison, watching the west bound train approach, became confused and kept on the track.

He was struck at a point about twenty feet from the Third street crossing and the body was dragged for about sixty feet before the train could be stopped. The body was almost severed at the waist.

Bowers & Criss Bros. ambulance made a hurry run and Dr. B. F. Barnes was called as acting coroner. The body was at once removed to the Bowers & Criss Bros. morgue, where it was prepared for burial.

Mr. Garrison formerly lived in Hebron but has been living in Newark for some time. He leaves a wife and eight children. The children are Ida, Della, Lydia, of Newark, and Gertrude of Chicago Junction, O., Fay, Ernest, Roy and Ray.

Marlin L. Haslett, watchman at the Third street crossing, states that he saw the man approaching the track, but that he appeared to be watching the trains and he saw no more of him until told that the man was struck. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

MINE OWNERS

And Operators Representing 70 Coal Companies and 53 Big Kentucky Mines Hold a Meeting.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 15.—A petition to President Roosevelt and congress against the Esch-Townsend bill, or any similar rate legislation designed to interfere with the fixing of rates by the roads themselves, was the result of a meeting of mine owners and operators representing 70 of the big coal mines in Kentucky and 70 coal companies, held in this city. The meeting, the members of which represented mines with an output of over 500,000 tons of coal annually, adopted a resolution in the form of a petition against the Esch-Townsend bill without a dissenting vote. The move to take active steps against railroad legislation and its spread to every other southern state.

AMUSEMENTS

ELSIE JANIS.

Elsie Janis will be seen at the Auditorium tonight in "The Little Duchess" which served Anna Held a couple of seasons ago. That the liasse French woman did not get out all the good there is in the piece has been demonstrated in short order by Miss Janis. This energetic miss has made the star part all that the authors intended it should be, an dthey in turn, have contributed additional musical numbers, and brought the book up to date. The original costly production is used intact—Parisian gowns, sumptuous scenic effects and all. Many well known names are to be found in the cast, while the chorus will go on record as the best looking lot of girls theatre goers here will have the privilege of seeing this season.

TOMORROW NIGHT.

The music lovers are to be given a rare treat Thursday evening by the Royal Hungarian orchestra in their concert at Taylor Hall. The following program indicates the high class of music which they render. For encores they usually play the more popular airs, and the music of lighter vein.

Part I.

Overture, Raymond-Thomas. Waltz, "Romanisches Liebesleben." Algalto and Czardas, "Ratz. From Hungarian National Fantasia. Pol-pourri, from "Il Trovatore," Verdi.

Violin Concerto solo, Browne.

Part II.

Tannhauser Overture, Wagner. Hungarian Rhapsodie, Liszt.

(a) Adagio from Sonata Beethoven; (b) Violets.

Cymbalom solo, Nicholas Malnor. Grand March, from "Faust." Gounod.

Seats are selling rapidly. They may be reserved at the Y. M. C. A. office or by telephone. Price for this entertainment, 50 cents.

SATURDAY'S SHOW.

When an astute manager like Mr. Jules Murry, who controls the tours of a dozen theatrical attractions of recognized merit, bestows his name upon an organization and advertises it as his "Own Company" it may be logically inferred that his personal reputation stands as sponsor for the excellence of that organization, and that a performance may be expected. At the Auditorium matinee and nights, November 18, the "Mummy and Humming Bird" is announced for presentation by Jules Murry's Own company, headed by William Whitecar, who appears in the role of Lord Lumley, a character in which he last season won a degree of praise that would seem to entitle him to be considered as good an exponent of the part as any actor who has ever essayed it. The members of the supporting cast, again including Henry Carl Lewis as Giuseppe the organ grinder, must necessarily be artists of ability to be warranted in undertaking the subsidiary roles, for each part is, in itself, a strong character and all unite to render the play one of the most interesting and enjoyable that has been seen in this city in recent years. A complete scenic equipment is announced and a production throughout that will commend itself to the critical favor of all who witness it. Seats on sale Thursday.

RACHEL GOLDSTEIN.

Karl Burgess' great and most elaborate scenic production "Rachel Goldstein," will be presented by the Emma Bunting company at the Auditorium on Monday evening. This is probably Mr. Burgess' heaviest melodramatic spectacle, requiring a special car for the transportation of scenery used in the same. The story of the play is that of a poor Jewish girl, Rachel Goldstein, who, in emigrating to this country with her father, meets with many startling adventures. The part of Rachel will be played by that clever little artist, Miss Emma Bunting, a young actress who has attracted much favorable comment by her previous work. The supporting company is large and is composed of capable people. A full line of vaudeville acts are carried by this company, all of which will be seen during the course of the performance. Seats on sale Friday.

RICHARD CARLE.

An engagement of more than passing interest to patrons of musical plays will occur at the Auditorium on Tuesday evening November 21, when Richard Carle appears in "The Mayor of Tokio" which was so successful during its preliminary summer tour in Chicago that it scored the season's record run in that city of 110 performances, and has since achieved great success in the cities of the East. Great interest naturally attaches to this production for the reason that Mr. Carle has achieved several notable successes in this city, and the theatre go public is keenly awaiting the disclosure of his development of an entirely new piece. The book of "The Mayor of Tokio" is by Mr. Carle and the music was written by William Frederick Peters. Supporting Mr. Carle will be a strong company of players, most of whom are well known to local play goers. Secure your tickets now.

GREAT SOUTHERN.

There will be no dearth of laughter at the Great Southern theatre during the week of Monday, November 20, for several of the most effective performances in that line will be given.

On Monday, November 20, Ezra Kendall whose record is one of never failing to make a member of any class laugh, will appear in his farce wherein he has proved most successful, "The Vinegar Buyer." His ability at local comment and pungent "take offs" on current events is given full opportunity in this vehicle. It is aptly designated as one succession of laughs. The seat sale will open for this performance on Friday, November 17.

Tuesday evening, November 21, Joe Weber and his all star stock company in their combination of musical comedy and burlesque will play their annual engagement. In the cast are Marie Dressler, Charles Bigelow, Trixie Friganza, Bonnie Magian and the others of that capable group which Mr. Weber has gathered together. Beauty and youth in the chorus, brilliancy in costumes and scenery and crispness in the performances are the qualities this organization never fails to maintain. The seat sale for this presentation will open on Saturday, November 10.

The droll mirth of which Richard Carle has proven himself such a master, is the chief element in "The Mayor of Tokio" the new musical comedy he will present at this theatre on Wednesday evening, November 22. The two prior musical comedies that came from Mr. Carle's pen, "The Storks," and "The Tenderfoot," are yet standard entertainments, and "The Mayor of Tokio" is said to be even their superior. Prodigious in costumes and scenery and all equipment is assured. The seat sale opens on Monday, November 20.

On Friday and Saturday, November 24 and 25, Lillian Blauvelt, the beautiful grand opera singer will make her first appearance in this part of the country in light opera. The piece in which she appears is a new one written for her and entitled "The Rose of the Alhambra." Its tone is said to be in full accord with the romantic tenor of opera comique. It is expected that this production will be one of the most satisfying of the season. Miss Blauvelt is supported by Eugene Cowles, another prominent vocalist. The seat sale opens Wednesday, November 22.

CURRENT THEATRE NEWS.

A position as a really able actress capable of splendid serious work seems to have been attained by Olga Netherlands through her recent performances in Chicago of "The Labyrinth," a translation made from the French. James O'Donnell Bennett, the conservative dramatic critic of the Chicago Record-Herald, said of her acting and her new production: "It is a drama that makes you think and an exhibition of acting that is definite and artistic to the minutest detail. 'The Labyrinth' is a great play, and Miss Netherlands is an actress of astonishing subtlety when she is seen at her best, and her new role brings out her best."

Everywhere satisfaction is being expressed over the entertainment provided by "The Pearl and the Pumpkin," the large musical extravaganza which amused New York for many weeks this fall. The extensive scenic equipment and strong cast which obtained so much commendation in New York are being kept together on the road tour. "Sunday," the play in which Ethel Barrymore appeared last season is bearing well the test of the use for a second year. Everywhere Miss Barrymore appears in it she is being well received. Her new production of J. M. Barrie's "Alice Sit by the Fire" will not be made until January.

One of the strongest comic opera casts before the public is said to have been gathered for Lillian Blauvelt's tour in "The Rose of Alhambra." It includes Eugene Cowles, Edwin Stevens, George L. Tallman, who was with Madame Schumann-Heink last season, Lillian Hudson, Adelia Barker, and others of prominence. Miss Blauvelt herself has for many seasons been a prima donna singing in London, Paris, Vienna, Rome, Naples and New York. The new opera in which she is to star is by Charles Emerson Cook and is said to be of a very high standard, reaching to the plane of the opera comique.

Mr. Hackett has obtained a new play for his wife, Mary Manning, and will star her at the head of her own company within a few weeks. She will therefore, retire from the cast of "The Walls of Jericho," the society drama in which she and Mr. Hackett have been playing in New York.

The uproarious laughter that greets "The Heir to the Hoorah" wherever presented reveals that the amusement felt by the New York and Chicago publics over this merry farce was well founded. The audiences everywhere reveal by their enthusiastic response to the fun created on stage that this piece is one of the most effective in its line produced in recent seasons.

Wonder has been expressed by the New York critics and public over the lavishness displayed in the new Drury Lane spectacle, "The White Cat" which has been brought out there by Klaw and Erlanger. It has been put on with a wealth of effects both scenic and histrionic that surpasses even those of "Mother Goose" and the other productions of this series. The real humor of J. M. Barrie in the fantastical comedy "Peter Pan" seems to have now got the appreciation of the New York public which is bestowing big patronage upon Maude Adams' presentation of the comedy there. Miss Adams appears as "Peter Pan" and the action of the play discloses the achievements that youth attains to in his dreams where he overthrows pirates and revels in the heroisms he daily pictures to himself in his day dreams.

NO CONFIDENCE

At Reserve Over Big Game at Granville Next Saturday—Coach Jones Hard at Work.

Columbus, O., Nov. 15.—Coach Jones of Western Reserve, was much pleased with the showing of the team Saturday. It looks as though Reserve will give Denison a hard tussle next Saturday, when the crimson and white goes against the crack Granville team. Green has just returned to his studies having recovered from his illness. He was out on the field yesterday, watching the team practice, but he was not in his football clothes.

He intends to practice this week and may possibly get in shape to play against Denison. Reserve's chances will be better considerably with the crack half-back in the game. Although Denison was defeated by Wittenberg Saturday the fact has not caused Reserve to feel the least bit confident, as Coach Jones and all the players realize that with the possible exception of Case, the game next Saturday will be the hardest contest of the season.

At the present time, however, Reserve is in better shape than she has been the whole season. Her weakest spots have been bolstered up and there is better team work. It would not be a great surprise if Reserve succeeded in defeating Denison, as the team which defeated Wooster Saturday showed wonderful form. With one more week to practice, Coach Jones will be able to remedy many of the faults which it was impossible for him to eradicate in the short time he had last week in which to build up the team.

CATARRH FIRST A COLD THEN CATARRH THEN CONSUMPTION

A cold in the head is a common ailment, but it rarely ever stops there. It often grows stubborn and protracted, the mucous membranes, or inner lining of the body, become inflamed and secrete a filthy, unhealthy matter which is absorbed by the blood and soon produces that disgusting disease, Catarrh. Then follow the unpleasant symptoms of "hawking and spitting," ringing noises in the ears, headache, poor appetite, mucus dropping back into the throat, and a feeling of general debility. Every day the blood becomes more heavily loaded with these poisonous secretions, and if the trouble is allowed to run on, the lungs become diseased from the constant passage of poisoned blood through them, and then Catarrh terminates in the most dreaded and fatal of all diseases, Consumption. The only way to get rid of Catarrh permanently is to cleanse the blood, and S. S. S. is the ideal remedy for this purpose. It soon clears the system of all impurities, purges the blood of all Catarrhal matter and poisons, and effectually checks the progress of this dangerous and far-reaching disease. S. S. S. keeps the blood in perfect order so that Catarrh cannot remain; and as this pure, healthy blood goes to every nook and corner of the body, the entire system is strengthened and invigorated, and the symptoms all pass away. Book with information about Catarrh and medical advice free.

tion, O. W. Post presiding. Post in his address declared that thousands have become an upper millstone and the labor unions the nether millstone, and between the two the common peo-

Patison's Career of Successes

The Cleveland Leader, the organ of the Republicans of its city and northern Ohio, prints the story of the life of John M. Patison, the Democratic candidate for Governor who led the good government advocates to a glorious victory over the bosses, the story appearing under the heading, "Patison's Career of Successes," and showing how at the age of sixteen he enlisted and was honorably discharged at the end of his enlistment, how he studied law and was admitted to the bar, how he was elected a member of the lower house at Columbus, later a member of the state senate, then a member of congress, and how he has been and is identified with large business interests in Cincinnati. And it was this same Cleveland Leader which a short time ago declared that it could not believe the people of Ohio would turn down Governor Herrick for a man unknown and untried, a man like Patison. The people of Ohio gave the Leader a surprise and showed that they had a better acquaintance with Mr. Patison.

Senator Foraker says it was a revolt against bossism in Ohio. The senator finds it much easier to talk after than he did before election.

Governor Herrick, whose defeat was due to the issue of bossism and the belief of the people of Ohio that he was controlled by Cox, seems not to have read the lesson in the vote but while complaining against the voters for their action still insists that he is in politics. Time will tell whether he's in or out. It's not likely that he will care to submit his case to the voters of Ohio for some time.

Chairman Dick declared that the tariff was the issue in Ohio. He would not now say that a vote in Ohio was a vote against the tariff.

The press censorship has been abolished in Russia. There is not the slightest danger of Governor Pennypacker of Pennsylvania going to Russia to reside.

A change of 600,000 votes in one year in the state of Pennsylvania indicates that the people are not so bound to the machine that there is no hope for them.

Governor Folk of Missouri says that instead of wanting to run for the presidency he is trying to run Missouri as it should be run. There is a governor who has a clear understanding as to why he was elected.

It costs the people of Philadelphia a fabulous sum to establish a filter plant to furnish better water, but the grafters got about six millions of the money. It's no wonder the fight in Philadelphia was against graft, and graft was badly defeated.

Leading business and professional men all over the country have a box of Wadsworth Bros. Cigars right at hand to treat their friends and customers. They would not do this unless the cigar was just what it is—all long Havana filler, burning even with a long, white ash.

WILL TIE UP ALL OF RUSSIA

WORKMEN'S COUNCIL CONDEMNNS DILATORY TACTICS OF THE GOVERNMENT.

Proclaim General Strike—Express Dissatisfaction at the Declaration of Martial Law.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 15.—Another general suspension of work threatens Russia. In view of the condemning to death of many of the sailors who mutinied at Cronstadt, the delay in carrying out the reforms outlined in the imperial manifesto, the proclamation of martial law in Poland and other repressive acts, the council of workmen's delegates, decided to proclaim a general strike throughout Russia. There has been little improvement in the agrarian situation in the central provinces. The peasants in many cases are fighting among themselves, and organized bands are attacking villages of considerable size for the purpose of plundering them.

The universities of Russia will remain closed until Jan. 28, and perhaps longer. At a conference of the rectors and professors of various colleges and members of the cabinet, it was decided that it would be useless to attempt to resume studies during the present agitation.

Count Witte received from the committee of the Social Democracy of Poland and Lithuania an indignant telegraphic denial of the charge that the present movement in Poland is designed to secure separation. A prominent Pole said: "We have attentively watched Germany's preparations beyond the frontier, knowing that the day of our separation from Russia will be the day of Poland's destruction. The Polish people are quite reconciled to be part of Russia under the new condition of the latter's existence, but we demand legislative, administrative and judicial autonomy."

Riots at Vladivostok.
Martial law has been proclaimed in Vladivostok and the uprising is reported to be under control. The rioting began last Sunday afternoon immediately after the departure of the Russian armored cruisers Gromobol and Rossyia. The people, who had gathered in great crowds in the streets, became excited by inflammatory speeches. Many soldiers and sailors were also in angry mood, having expected to go home with the squadron. The mob began to break windows and pilage, and in the evening set fire to the theater, the Golden Horn hotel, to several blocks of Chinese buildings in the northern part of the city, and to the officers' residences and other buildings in the eastern quarter. The fires burned all night. Seventy buildings were consumed. Troops were summoned to restore order and fired frequent volleys, killing many persons.

American Consul Greener telegraphed that the commandant of the fortress of Vladivostok, assisted by priests and the leaders of the workmen's organizations, addressed the mob, urging them to keep the peace, but the consul said he feared the attempt would be in vain. Mr. Greener added that 24 merchant vessels in the harbor were now crowded with inhabitants. The consul was on board a steamer when he sent his dispatch, and he expects to remain there.

Strike at Warsaw.
Warsaw, Nov. 15.—The general political strike is still in progress. The city is suffering from a shortage of wood. The population, though greatly angered by the governmental communication regarding autonomy, has up to the present been self-restrained.

Armenians Massacre Tatars.
Tiflis, Nov. 15.—It is reported that in the government of Erivan 700 Armenians from a number of villages attacked the Tatar village of Gors, killed 400 of the villagers and plundered and burned all property.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 15.—Prince Uru-soff, former governor of Tver, central Russia, was appointed assistant minister of the interior in succession to General Treppoff.

Plots in Cuba.
Havana, Nov. 15.—Some extra police have been stationed within the palace for the last three nights as the result of apprehension, based on an official telegram from Santiago, to the effect that some sort of a revolutionary plot was being hatched there which, it was suspected, might result in simultaneous disorder in Havana.

Was Murdered.
Mahanoy City, Pa., Nov. 15.—The body of George Hughes, 45, a mine foreman for the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company, was found on the mountains near St. Nicholas. He had been missing since he quit work Monday afternoon, and it is supposed he was murdered.

Russian Exile.
Denver, Colo., Nov. 15.—Vladimir Moorloff, a Russian exile, founder of the "People's Will" party in Russia, died at the county hospital here of cancer. Moorloff escaped to America from Siberia after five years' servitude there for publishing an alleged seditious newspaper.

"Though somewhat averse to patent medicines, and still more averse to becoming a professional affidavit man, it seems only a plain duty in the present instance to add my experience to the columns already written concerning the curative powers of Peruna."

"I have been particularly benefited by its use for colds in the head and throat. I have been able to fully cure myself of a most severe attack in forty-eight hours by its use according to directions. I use it as a preventive whenever threatened with an attack."

"Members of my family also use it for like ailments. We are recommending it to our friends."—C. W. Bowman.

2,800 POUNDS OF PIG IRON GOOD FOR A 20 DAY SENTENCE

For stealing twenty-eight hundred pounds of pig iron from the plant of the Newark Steel Works, west of the city, John Kerr, a Newark man will have to serve twenty days in the county jail and pay a fine of $10 and costs. Kerr pleaded guilty to the charge when arraigned before Mayor Crilly this morning. Unless the fine is paid, he will be compelled to serve an additional twenty days or more. The theft occurred Friday night when Kerr loaded a wagon with iron and was making good his escape when he was caught by the officers. The iron was valued at a little more than $22, making it impossible to charge the man with grand larceny.

BISHOP HARTLEY VISITS THE POPE

MANY PRIVILEGES GRANTED TO CATHOLICS OF THIS DIOCESE.

Plenary Indulgence and Papal Benediction for All the Faithful Members of the Church.

Pope Pius X has granted the apostolic blessing and given a plenary indulgence to the clergy and laity of the diocese of Columbus and has bestowed many privileges upon the Catholics of the diocese through Bishop James J. Hartley, who is at present in Rome, and has been a guest at the Vatican. A letter from the bishop was read in the churches at the different masses Sunday, and is the first message which the laity has received from the head of the diocese since the bishop's departure for Rome, early in September.

It is quite probable that the bishop will not return to Columbus for several weeks. His letter is as follows: "To the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese of Columbus:—It is with feelings of greatest happiness that I address you this letter from the Eternal City."

Today I had a long private audience with His Holiness, Pius X, and I wish that I was able to tell you what a grand man he is. You are at once deeply impressed with his simple ways, his affability, his fatherly manner of speaking, and you feel as though you had known him all your life. He inspires you with reverence as soon as you come into his presence. He fascinates you with his kindness and benevolence as you continue with him in conversation, and when you leave him he has won the affections of your heart. His appearance, his words his generous dispositions so kindly expressed stamp him as a true man of God.

"He received me most graciously in his private apartments and when I knelt to kiss his ring he raised me gently by the hand and made me sit down beside him at the old desk where he was writing, and at once made me feel perfectly at ease by the kindly manner in which he talked with me about the diocese of Columbus. The church, the schools, the zeal of the clergy, the devotion and self-sacrifice of the sisters, who are continually engaged in works of charity and education, above all the faith and noble generosity of the laity in promoting the welfare and growth of the church, were dwelt upon for some time."

"I did not forget to tell him of the great and generous sacrifices made by the laity, clergy and the religious of the diocese in paying off the great debt which weighed so heavily upon the hearts of the first two bishops. He replied, 'May God bless the generous hearts who did the work and reward them a hundred-fold. I hope now you will be able to do much to make the works of faith and piety abound in your diocese.'

"I also told him of the schools of the diocese, the splendid work being done year after year through the great devotion of the sisters to the cause of Christian education, and the many sacrifices made by the poor people to sustain that work. He replied, 'From my heart I ask God to bless them all. The great hope of the future is to properly educate the children.'

"I then asked him for that great privilege so often requested by the sisters who teach our small schools, and who have only a few members in their community, namely, permission to keep the blessed sacrament in their chapels, explaining what a great consolation it would be to them. He replied, 'I cheerfully give you that privilege for them myself. You may grant it to them when you will.' So from Rome I send most gladly this permission to all the communities teaching in our diocese."

"I also told him of our new college in Columbus, and I am bringing home a precious memento of his approval and good will for the institution and its friends. Each privilege I asked for the diocese of Columbus he most readily and cheerfully granted."

"In telling me to give his apostolic benediction to the people upon my return, I asked him if he would allow me to write from Rome today to the priests in charge of the faithful, telling them that they had his special permission to grant his apostolic benediction to these under their care. He replied, 'Certainly. Tell the priests I grant them that privilege. Tell them to prepare the people and grant to all the apostolic benediction and plenary indulgence.'

"So I send this privilege to every pastor in the diocese, and also to every priest in charge of the religious, educational or public institutions. They may select the time most suitable to all, and after due preparation grant the papal benediction in the same manner as if he had received the permission directly from the pope himself."

"The diocese of Columbus with its clergy, religious, laity and school children, have good reason to feel grateful to his holiness for the many privileges he has bestowed upon them through his bishop, I sincerely wish that you were all present to see and experience for yourselves the benevolence and generosity of the noble heart of the present vicar of Christ. "This morning I said mass at half past six in the crypt of St. Peter's at the tomb of the apostles, for the clergy, religious and laity of the diocese. At the memento for the dead I did not forget those who have gone from us, especially the two beloved bishops and many worthy priests who have finished their earthly labors in the vineyard of the Lord."

"From the Eternal City, where cluster some of the dearest and saddest memories of the church, I send to all my affectionate greetings, and wish all the blessings of God."

"Your servant in Christ,
"JAMES J. HARTLEY,
Bishop of Columbus."

"N. B.—The priests will please recite with the people after mass the invocation, 'Cor Jesu Sacratissimum.' Miserere nobis."

KAPPA PHI GIRLS GIVE LUNCHEON

MYRTLE LODGE I. O. O. F. HAS WELL ATTENDED AND A PROFITABLE MEETING.

Mrs. Shepardson Leaves for Boston to Spend Winter--Quail Scarce About Granville.

Granville, O., Nov. 15.--Tuesday evening the members of the Kappa Phi sorority entertained a number of their alumnae and other guests with an informal luncheon at five o'clock in the sorority rooms. The delightful luncheon was served from a little table which stood in the middle of the room, and which was most effectively decorated with white and blue ribbons draped from the chandeliers, and ferns, yellow chrysanthemums also imparted a radiance and beauty to the decorations. Those present beside the active and pledged chapter were the alumnae, Misses Stella Case, Stella Moore, Grace Harford of Granville; Carrie Halderman of Chicago; Shirley Pitts, Ida Moore and Helen Crane of Newark, and as other guests, Miss Barker, Miss Jones, Miss Adams, May Halderman and Misses Lulu and Mary Parsons of Granville.

Myrtle Lodge, I. O. O. F. of this place, held its regular meeting on Monday evening of this week, and the turnout was very good. The prospect of work in the initiatory degree doubtless brought many of the members from a distance. This lodge is in a very prosperous condition, has been doing business right along, and expects to make a higher record than that of last year, which was very good. Among those from a distance who were present at the meeting were R. Porter Owatona, Minn.; A. W. Huffer, Castown, Helbig and O. C. Turner of Zanesville, and A. D. Huff, W. A. Ashbrook, C. W. Benikson, J. W. Wolfe and F. E. Armstrong of Johnstown, O.

Mrs. E. S. Shepardson, for many years one of the most prominent, efficient and popular ladies in Granville society left today for Boston, Mass., there to spend the winter and spring with her daughter, Mrs. H. S. Pomeroy of that city. Mrs. Shepardson has been the recipient of many delightful social attentions from her many friends and acquaintances, who will miss her bright presence from the club, school and social circles.

William Daniels of Toledo was here on business Monday.

Miss Fannie Marion of Columbus, after a short visit here, has returned home.

Quite a number of Granville sportsmen are scouring the hills in search of Bob White. The birds are reported as being very scarce.

Homer Anderson of Corning, O., was here on business Tuesday.

Invitations are out for a luncheon to be given by Mrs. E. C. Wright on Thursday at her home on College street. Mrs. Wright entertained last Thursday afternoon "with a thimble party."

Diamonds have increased in value the last six years at the rate of 10 per cent a year. In financial circles, investments that pay even 5 per cent are greatly sought after. The highest authorities assure us that the increase in value the next few years may reach as high as 20 per cent a year.

18,000 DESERTED WIVES IN THE CITY OF CHICAGO

Chicago, Nov. 15.--There are 18,000 deserted wives in Chicago, says Lester Bodine, superintendent of compulsory education. "Large families and small salaries are responsible in a large measure for this wife abandonment. Our investigation of the west side shows that there are 6,000 deserted women there and three times that many in the entire city."

"The real history of the average wife abandonment case, when sifted to its component parts, reveals large families, long hours, small salaries and earnest but futile efforts on the part of the husband to sustain the family in a moderate condition of comfort."

"I am not an advocate of race suicide, but in the poor quarters there are too many births. We are now suffering from too much pro-creancy for the poor."

Some Funny Sayings By Mites of Humanity

RAGGED Boy—Please, sir, give a poor orphan a few pennies.
Pedestrian—Have you no parents, my boy?
Ragged boy—No, sir. They were divorced last week.

Mamma—Tommy, did you strike Nellie?
Tommy—Yes, ma'am.
Mamma—You ought to be ashamed of yourself. What did you strike her for?
Tommy—Cause she struck me back.

"Johnny", said the mother of a strenuous urchin, "how is it Willie Jones wins a prize each week at school and you never get one?"
"Huh!" rejoined Johnny. "He don't win nothing" but 'good conduct' prizes. The rest of us fellers don't want 'em."

Minister—Bobby, do you love your teacher?
Bobby (aged six)—Yes, sir.
Minister—That's right. Now tell me why you love her.
Bobby—Because the Bible says we must love our enemies.—Chicago News.

Talking Against Time.
The staff members of the United States district attorney's office sometimes tell good stories. The following was told after lunch one day this week by an assistant district attorney:

"A young limb of the law defended an old convict on the charge of burglary. The rules of the court (it was in Massachusetts) allowed each side one hour in which to address the jury."

"The young lawyer, just before his turn came, consulted a veteran member of the bar who was in the courtroom."

"How much time do you think I should take up in addressing the jury?" he asked.

"You ought to take the full hour," "The full hour! Why, I was only going to take ten minutes."

"You ought to take the full hour," reiterated the old lawyer.

"But why?"
"Because the longer you talk the longer you will keep your client out of jail."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

She Proved It.
"That Mr. Blivins has a remarkably distorted vision."

"What makes you think so?"
"Didn't you see him sitting in the street car coming home with all those ladies standing in the aisle?"

"I saw him."

"Did you see how carefully he avoided looking up by concentrating his attention on the daily paper?"

"Yes, but that doesn't prove his vision is distorted, does it?"

"I think it does. The paper was upside down."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Real Beneficiary.

"Did Billings fail for a million?"
"No, for himself."

Where It Belonged.

An amateur authoress who had submitted a story to a magazine waited for several weeks without hearing from the editor concerning it. Finally she sent him a note requesting an early decision, because, as she said, she had other irons in the fire.

Shortly after came the editor's reply: "I have read your story, and I should advise you to put it with the other irons."—Harper's Weekly.

The Immediate Danger.

He—As soon as we are married, dearest, I will take out an endowment insurance policy so that you may be protected—

She—Don't you think you'd better take out an accident insurance policy now, George? You haven't spoken to father yet, you know.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Refereed a Fight.

"Pop!"
"Yes, my son."
"What do you think? Our minister has been acting as a referee at a fight!"
"Don't talk nonsense, my boy."
"I'm not, pop. The fight was in the choir."—New York Press.

Impediment.

Prue—Why don't you break the engagement if you find you no longer love him?
Marjorie—I've just discovered that he wants to break it himself.—Puck.

ADVOCATE PATTERNS FROM THE LATEST NEW YORK FASHIONS.

5176 GIRLS' DRESS, 8 TO 14 YEARS.

GIRLS' DRESS 5176.

Combinations of plaid with plain material are much to be noted this autumn and are always charming and attractive for little girls. Illustrated is a pretty little frock which is, however, rendered dressy by means of the contrast in materials and which is exceedingly smart at the same time that it is absolutely simple. In the case of the model the material is dark blue cashmere and the plaid is one of the bright ones of the Scottish clans, but all materials that are used for little girls' dresses are appropriate and color is always a matter of individual preference. Plaids this year are exceptionally varied while also it will be found that the list of plain colors is a long one. Dark blue always is serviceable, but brown and green in many shades are equally fashionable and claret and Venetian reds are showing a greater number of shades than ever before.

The dress is made with the blouse and skirt, which are joined at the waist line. The blouse is made over a body lining, which is faced to form the chemise, and is laid in "tucks" which extend from the shoulders to waist line and that give a box plaited effect at the front edges. The sleeves are the favorite ones, made with rather wide cuffs above which they are full, while the skirt is straight gathered at its upper edge.

The quantity of material required for the medium size (12 years) is 6 yards 27, 4 1-2 yards 32 or 3 1-2 44 inches wide with 1 yard 44 inches wide for chemise and trimming.

The pattern 5176 is cut in sizes for girls of 8, 10, 12, and 14 years of age.

"Look at me!" exclaimed the leading lawyer warmly. "I never took a drop of medicine in my life, and I'm as strong as any two of your patients put together."

"Well, that's nothing," retorted the physician. "I never went to law in my life, and I'm as rich as any two dozen of your clients put together."—Medical Standard.

Compensation.

A blushing maiden of the backwoods had confided to her "maw" that a certain wooer of the name of Hank had "popped" to her and that she had agreed to "hitch up" with him, whereupon her "maw" had knocked the ashes from her pipe against the chimney jamb and had said:

"Hank hain't no great to look at, Jinny, but when a man is the rifle shot he is an' when he owns two o' the best bull pups in this county an' kin lick any man of his size with one hand tied behind him an' kin jump higher an' run faster nor any other chap in these parts—when he's got an' kin do all that a gal might look further an' do wuss than to splice up with him. I'm right glad you ain't throwin' yourself away on a poverty struck nobody, honey!"—Judge.

Tommy's Decision.

In a small village the serenaders were storming a house with tin cans, guns, cannon and stone because the bride and groom refused to come out.

Social Tragedy

Women Who Brave Death for Social Honors.

In the midst of one of the most brilliant social functions of the season, a noted society woman started suddenly from her chair with a scream of agony and fell insensible to the floor.

A few hours later the distinguished physician told her anxious husband that she was suffering from an acute case of nervous prostration brought on by female trouble, and hinted at an operation. Fortunately a friend advised her to try

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The result was that she escaped the surgeon's knife and to-day is a well woman.

The derangement of the delicate female organism sets every nerve in the body quivering with pain. Headaches, backaches, torturing bearing down pains and dragging sensations make women nervous and hysterical.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was troubled for eight years with irregularities which broke down my system and brought on extreme nervousness and hysteria. I could neither enjoy my meals nor sleep nights, became easily irritated and nervous and very despondent. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound proved to be the only medicine which helped me. After taking the third bottle, my general health began to improve. At the end of the fifth month I was well and could attend to my household and social duties and enjoy life.
Mrs. CHESTER CURRY, 42 Saratoga Street, East Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Curry, whose portrait appears on the right, is the leader of the Ladies' Symphony Orchestra. The following letter is from Miss Goode, President of the Bryn Mawr Lawn Tennis Club of Chicago:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I tried many different remedies to try to build up my system, which had become run down from loss of proper rest and unseasonable hours, but nothing seemed to help me. Mother is a great advocate of Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles, having used it herself some years ago with great success. So I began to take it, and in less than a month I was able to get out of bed and out of doors, and in three months I was entirely well. Really I have never felt so strong and well as I have since.

Inspecting Traction Lines.
Columbus, Nov. 15.—W. K. Kesley Schoepff of Cincinnati, president of the Columbus, Buckeye Lake and Newark Traction company, with Randall Morgan, one of the directors of the company, and general counsel for the United Gas Improvement company, is expected in Columbus the latter part of this week on an inspection trip of the Elkins-Widener lines.

The party is now in Indiana looking over the syndicate's properties in that state, and from there will come here. They also will go to the northern part of the state to look over the Tucker-Anthony roads there, which, it is said, the Elkins-Widener people are now negotiating for. The acquisition of these lines would give them a short cross state route. This will be Mr. Morgan's first trip over the recently acquired properties.

MARION MAN IS MISSING FROM HOME

Mrs. J. M. Neer Thinks Her Husband Took Three or Four Thousand Dollars With Him.

Marion, O., Nov. 15.—J. M. Neer, who has conducted an extensive grain, flour and feed business, is missing, and his most intimate friends are at sea to know what has become of him. The fact became known when Mr. Bowles, Mr. Neer's father-in-law, asked the court to appoint a receiver for the business, and Judge Young named I. A. Merchant, president of the City National Bank, as receiver.

D. H. Lincoln, cashier of the bank, as representative of Merchant, gave out a statement concerning Neer's disappearance.

"We do not understand Mr. Neer's motive in leaving the city and abandoning his business, and do not desire to do him an injustice," said Mr. Lincoln. "No one knows where he went, and it may be that he intends returning. He has been away for a sufficient length of time to make it advisable for Mr. Bowles to ask for the appointment of a receiver."

Mrs. Neer states that she does not know where her husband is, other than that she received some orders mailed at Jamestown, N. Y.

"As near as I can figure up" said Mrs. Neer, "my husband has taken between $3,000 and $4,000 with him."

"When he left he stated that he was going to Bucyrus, and that is the last I have heard of him."

His liabilities are said to be about $16,000.
